The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

The promise to St. Albans of a slice of the pie of prosperity ought to whet a dyspeptic appetite.

The serious, even tho' not critical, illness to Capt. Hurley will give another black eye to the sport in Harvard university, while Yale is expected to give the finishing tint tomorrow.

The attempts of party organs in Boston to ridicule Judge Dewey, who is running for mayor after defeat in the primary, will act more as a boomerang than a bludgeon for Frothingham. Dewey may have made himself more or less ridiculous by the multiplicity of his wearing apparel in the original canvass and by his intention to break the party's choice, but he will gain support in the newspaper attempt to heap up the ridicule.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Italian Trade Revival.

The industrial revival in Italy has been supplemented by an extraordinary display of thrift by the Italian people. Indeed, it might be said that the revival is due to the thrift of these people. The savings of Italians in the national bank have steadily increased, and the amount of Italian consols, held abroad has steadily decreased. The consul of the United States at Milan well says of the outlook: "The economic future of the country which, in spite of the modesty of its industries and its lack of experience in world trade, and in spite of the fact that it is one of the youngest among the powers, with its commerce only in its infancy, can produce and lay apart a million lire per day ($200,000), is scarcely to be regarded as doubtful."—Boston Herald.

Manhattan Stock Company Next Week at the Barre Opera House.

The following is from the Glens Falls, N. Y., Daily Times of last Tuesday: "An audience which completely filled every nook and corner of the Empire theatre welcomed the Manhattan Stock Company last evening. The play was 'Way Down in Maine,' which was well staged with attractive scenery, and much attention to detail. The drama is interesting, and was made more interesting through its excellent interpretations and the more than clever specialties, and by a magnificent dramatic finale in the third act. The company is a fine one and is far better than one expects to find in a popular price attraction."

"Marguerite Hammond, the leading lady, was naturally the centre of attraction. She made every point tell, receiving much applause on her dramatic speeches, furthermore she looked the part of a young school girl, and gave an exceedingly youthful and natural conception of the role. The other members of the company were all more than adequate in the parts assigned to them. The specialties between the acts were all very excellent and received repeated encores. The Manhattan Stock Company is worthy of large patronage throughout the entire week."

As before announced, the Manhattan Stock Company will open an engagement Monday evening, Nov. 27th, at the Barre opera house. The opening bill Monday evening will be Frank Harvey's powerfully written melodrama, entitled, "Wicked London."

Santa will be placed on sale tomorrow morning at the Red Cross Pharmacy. Ladies' tickets for Monday evening will be limited to two hundred.

Miss Amelia and Phyllis Slack of Lisbon, N. H., who have been visiting friends in town for a few days, left Wednesday for Newport, N. H., where they have taken employment in the shop of the Pease & Mfg. Co.

Miss Marion Annis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Annis of the west hill, spent last week at Clark S. Hall's at North Randolph.

Prof. W. J. Hamilton of Boston and Miss Augusta Bigelow of Champlain, N. Y., who have been in town for nearly a week, gave a concert at the Methodist church Monday evening, after which a choral class of about 50 members was organized.

Sheriff Sprague was in Tunbridge and Stratford on official business Wednesday.

Miss Maud Merrill has recently returned from Burlington, where she was the guest of Miss Margaret Chestnut, who was for eight years official reporter of the Orange county court.

Elmer J. Flanders and Miss Nellie V. Rich, both of this town, were married in Lowell, Mass., November 1. They arrived home last week, after visiting at the home of the groom's brother, Harlan A. Flanders of Franklin Falls, N. H.

The Chelsea brass band is to have an old-fashioned promenade at the opera house hall on Thanksgiving evening. Before the promenade the band will give a concert, which will conclude with a selection for the grand march.

County Examiner John M. Comstock will hold teachers' examinations at Bradford on November 28, 29, and at Chelsea on December 1, 2, beginning at 9 a. m. each day.

Dan E. Sargent and wife, who went from North Randolph last spring to Michigan and purchased a farm in the southern peninsula, have rented their farm there, and returned to their farm at North Randolph. Mrs. Sargent arrived several weeks ago, while Mr. Sargent arrived last Saturday, bringing with him his cattle and horses. Mr. Sargent is the father of Mrs. William A. Dickenson of this place.

MARSHFIELD.

Ernest Rosebrook returned from his visit in Portland, Me., Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Lucinda Northrop and grandson, Henry, were visitors in Peacham and Danville last week.

It is reported that E. L. Duke has at last found the carcass of the deer he wounded during the open season. It is quite a general question whether this matter should be reported or not, and counted as one more killed in the state during the open season. The carcass was nearly all eaten away.

Game Warden Pike received word that a doe with a broken leg has been frequently seen in the eastern part of the town of East Montpelier. The animal will undoubtedly be taken care of by the warden.

Mrs. Cora Glidden of Montpelier was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hill Wednesday.

Mrs. Lizzie Spencer Robinson has closed her purchase of the Woodward house. Thursday evening the electric lights were turned on at the house. Mrs. Robinson has begun extensive repairs upon the house and grounds. We are glad to welcome her back to our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Munson are both ill, with grip and pleurisy respectively. P. G. Bemis is ill with pneumonia. He was taken suddenly ill last Tuesday morning. There is no change reported to date.

Mrs. Dustin Scott of East Calais was the guest of Mrs. Flora Bliss Thursday. Mrs. George O. Davis remains about the same this morning, in a very low condition. Few hopes are entertained of her recovery.

Charlie Buxton and wife returned from Northfield Thursday. Charlie is much better and will remain here until after Thanksgiving.

Bert W. Davis is gaining flesh, and, his friends trust, strength to overcome the disease which has fastened upon him.

Mrs. E. A. Rosebrook is nursing Mrs. George O. Davis. E. W. McWain of Rochester is visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. T. Davis, for an indefinite time.

UNION FLOUR FOREVER!

For years the names of our Flours—Crosby's Superior, Lily White and Harvest Queen—have been before the people, and now they are familiar to every tongue. Others coming have been described as "just as good," but have passed by.

Our Flours have stood the test. Their bulwarks of quality stand as the rock of Gibraltar against the onslaught of competition, and today they are firmer, higher, stronger than ever in the estimation of users. Others have been as dazzling meteors—ablaze for a moment, then gone forever—while these, as fixed stars, shine with eternal brightness, steadfast and sure in their tranquil light.

What has held them constant at all times? Possibly "UNION," meaning quality, has had the doing of it, for upon each sack and barrel is the UNION LABEL. They are without doubt the Flours for you to use. You need no other. One trial and you will knead no other. The saving of twenty-five cents in price hardly pays for a dollar's worth of dissatisfaction.

Another car is now at our storehouse. Send in your order. See our goods and prices. Crosby's Superior, a bread Flour; Lily White, an all-round Flour; Harvest Queen, a straight pastry Flour.
